

I believe cell phone use should be electronically inhibited in ANY public structure or vehicle in which 25 or more people are gathered. Selfish cell phone users have invaded the public's privacy long enough. To remove the cell phone ban on airplanes would be to cede one more public place to these uncaring cretins.